I. DEFINITION AND PURPOSE

The A.S./SDSU Aztec Recreation Sport Club program provides students the opportunity to represent San Diego State University in highly competitive sport activities as student-directed organizations focused on student leadership and success. Recognition as a Sport Club requires the approval of the Sport Club Council, Recreation and Wellness Commission, the A.S. Board of Directors and Aztec Recreation administration. This recognition provides eligibility for allocated funding, administrative support, facility space (in some cases) and use of the SDSU name and logo by the club. The goal of the Sport Club Program is to create a safe and fun learning environment that provides team members the opportunity for physical, social, and leadership development. The success of each sport club team depends largely upon the student leaders who manage team administrative responsibilities and promote team member development. The most successful club programs have a balance and understanding of the important and collaborative roles students, administration, coaches and alumni provide as well as how each role contributes to program success.

The decision to secure the services of a coach (paid or volunteer) is made by each club team and the Aztec Recreation administration. In addition to the respective coaching duties and commitment to student development, coaches are encouraged to guide and assist with the completion of club administrative tasks and may also provide input regarding club team business. However, decisions regarding day to day operations should be made collaboratively by the club team officers and coach(es) and always in line with A.S./SDSU policies, guidelines and procedures.

A.S./SDSU Sports Club paid and volunteer coaches work under the direction of the Intramural Sports & Sports Club Coordinator and Supervisor of A.S./SDSU Aztec Recreation. Coaching positions with the A.S./SDSU Aztec Recreation Sports Club Program are considered "at will" and are at the mutual consent of the paid or volunteer coach and A.S./SDSU. Accordingly, either A.S./SDSU or the paid/volunteer coach can terminate the coaching agreement at any time, with or without cause. The A.S./SDSU Aztec Recreation Sport Club program expects that all sport club teams are well-managed, stable organizations that contribute positively to student development and success and that all club members and coaches represent Associated Students and SDSU in a positive manner. As the employer, Associated Students administrators are ultimately responsible for employment decisions related to paid and volunteer coaches.
