For Your Benefit: California's Programs for the Unemployed

This publication provides information about programs offered by the Employment Development Department (EDD) for unemployed Californians. This is for general information only and it is not a legal document.

Additional information is available at www.edd.ca.gov.

Unemployment Insurance (UI) 2
UI benefits provide partial wage replacement to workers who are unemployed through no fault of their own.

State Disability Insurance (SDI) 13
Disability Insurance (DI) is part of SDI and provides benefits to workers who are unable to work due to a non-work-related illness or injury, pregnancy, or childbirth.

Paid Family Leave (PFL) 14
PFL is part of SDI and provides partial wage replacement to workers who need time off to care for a seriously ill family member or bond with a new/adopted child.

Workforce Services 14
The EDD's Workforce Services Branch provides a range of employment services for job seekers.

How to Get Help 19

Unemployment Insurance (UI)

UI is paid for by your employer and provides partial income replacement when you are unemployed and meet all eligibility requirements.

Who Should File a UI Claim

To be eligible for UI benefits, you must be out of work, or partially unemployed, due to no fault of your own, be physically able to work, be available for work, ready to accept work, and actively looking for work.

When to File

You may apply for benefits as soon as you are unemployed or your work hours are reduced. Your claim will begin on the Sunday of the week in which you file your claim.

All claims have a one-week, unpaid waiting period. The waiting period does not begin until you file a claim, certify for benefits, and meet all eligibility requirements.

What You Need to File

To file a claim, you need to provide your:

- Name, (including all names you used while working) and Social Security number.
- Mailing and residence address (if different) and phone number.
- Last employer's complete name, address (mailing and physical location), and phone number.
- Last day worked and the reason you're no longer working (laid off, quit, fired, or left work because of a trade dispute).
- Work history during the 18 months prior to filing your claim, including out-of-state employment. Include all employers' names, dates employed, and wages earned.
- State-issued driver license number or identification card number.
- Citizenship status and if you have the legal right to work in the United States. If you indicate you're registered with the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS, formerly INS) and authorized to work in the United States, you'll be asked for the title of your employment authorization document and information from the USCIS document, such as the Alien Registration Number, card number, and/or expiration date.

Note: Your last employer's name and address are very important, regardless of how long you worked for the employer(s). If you worked part-time, provide the number of hours you work each week.

If you served in the military in the last 18 months, you will need to provide information from your DD214 Member copy 4.

If you worked for the federal government during the last 18 months, you will need to provide information from your Notice to Federal Employees About Unemployment Insurance, Standard Form 8.

Warning

Making a false statement or withholding information to receive benefits can be a felony. Penalties may include fines, a loss of benefits, and/or criminal prosecution. See additional information on fraud and penalties on page 12.

Employer Notification

Your last employer is notified when you file a UI claim. Although your eligibility is determined by the EDD, employers fund the UI program and are required by law to provide any information that may affect your eligibility to receive benefits.

Types of Claims

The claim you file depends on the type of employer you worked for and the state(s) where you worked.

You will file a:

- Regular California claim if you only worked in California, even if you now live outside of California.
- Federal claim if your employment was in civilian work for the federal government.
- Military claim if you served as a member of the United States Armed Forces.
- Combined wage claim if you earned wages in California and in at least one other state during the last 18 months.
- Interstate claim if you now reside in California and only worked in another state during the last 18 months. File your claim directly with the other state, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, or Canada. If you worked in the U.S. Virgin Islands, contact the EDD at 1-800-300-5616.

How to File

You may file a UI claim using one of the following methods:

- Online
  UI Online℠ is the fastest and most convenient way to file your UI claim. Visit www.edd.ca.gov/UI_Online to get started.
- Phone
  Speak to an EDD representative Monday through Friday between 8 a.m. and 12 noon (Pacific Time), except on state holidays.
  Refer to page 19 for a list of UI phone numbers.

- Fax or Mail
  When filing a claim with UI Online some customers will be instructed to fax or mail their UI application to the EDD. If this occurs, the paper Unemployment Insurance Application, DE 1101I, will display.

  For faster and more secure processing, fax the completed form to the number listed on the form. If mailing your UI application, use the address on the form and allow additional time for processing.

Beginning Date of Claim
Your claim begins on the Sunday of the week in which you file your claim.

Ending Date of Claim
Your claim ends on the Saturday, 52 weeks after your claim begins. If you exhaust your benefits prior to this date, you cannot file another California claim until the benefit year of the claim ends.

If you worked in another state during the last 18 months, you may be eligible to file a new claim in that state.

Minimum Earnings to Establish a Valid Claim
You must have at least $1,300 in earnings in one quarter of your base period or at least $900 in earnings in the highest quarter and 1.25 times your highest quarter earnings in your total base period.

For example: If you have $900 earnings in your highest quarter, you would also be required to have earned a total of $1,125 in the base period ($900 x 1.25 = $1,125).

How UI Benefits are Calculated
The quarter in which you were paid the highest wages during the base period determines your weekly benefit amount (WBA). The WBA ranges from $40 to $450 per week.

The maximum benefit amount is 26 times the weekly benefit amount or one-half of the total base period wages, whichever is less.

Refer to the Unemployment Insurance Benefit Table on page 16 to estimate your WBA.

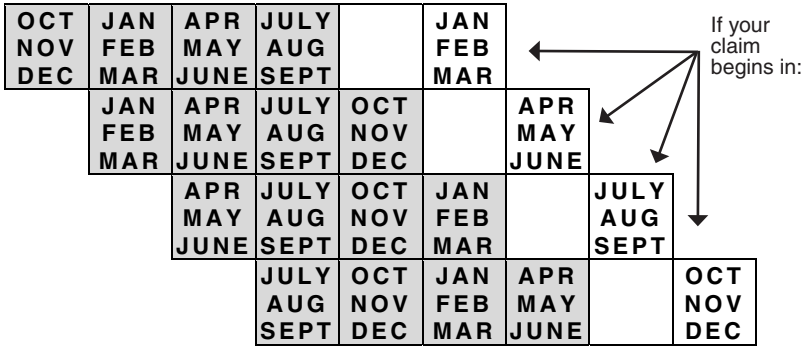
Base Period
There are two types of base periods used to establish a claim: the standard base period and the alternate base period.

Standard Base Period (SBP)

The SBP is the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters prior to the beginning date of the claim.

Refer to the chart below. The shaded area represents a standard base period. The non-shaded area represents the quarter the claim is filed.



Alternate Base Period (ABP)

If you do not have sufficient wages in the standard base period, you may qualify to file a claim using the ABP.

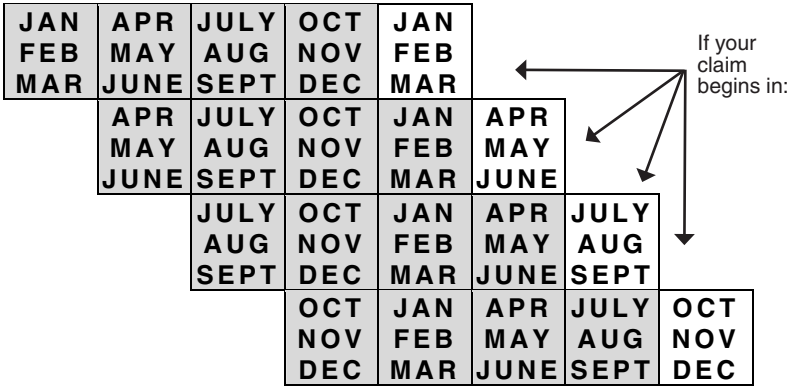
The ABP is the last four completed calendar quarters prior to the beginning date of the claim.

The EDD will automatically file an ABP claim on your behalf if you're not eligible for a SBP claim.

You may be asked to provide additional wage information so the EDD can correctly calculate your benefit amount. If you receive an Affidavit of Wages, DE 23A, provide the requested documents and return to the EDD.

Note: The ABP can only be used when there are not enough wages earned in the standard base period.

Refer to the chart below. The shaded area represents the ABP. The non-shaded area represents the quarter the claim is filed.



Waiting Period

Unemployment Insurance claims have a mandatory, one week, unpaid waiting period. This waiting period generally takes effect on the first eligible week of a claim and prior to benefits being paid. Do not wait to file your claim because the waiting period cannot be served until a claim has been filed.

How to Certify for Benefits

To serve your waiting period and receive benefit payments, you must meet all eligibility requirements and certify for benefits every two weeks.

There are three ways to certify for benefits:

- UI Online℠: www.edd.ca.gov/UI_Online
  This is the fastest way to certify for benefits and report work and wages. To use UI Online, you must create a secure login through Benefit Programs Online and complete a one-time registration for UI Online.

  For added convenience, UI Online Mobile℠ is available from mobile devices.

- EDD Tele-Cert℠: 1-866-333-4606
  Certify over the phone by calling 1-866-333-4606. Select option 2 and follow all instructions. To access EDD Tele-Cert you must create a PIN.

- Mail: Continued Claim form, DE 4581
  Complete, sign, and mail the form to the EDD.

  Note: For faster processing, certify through UI Online or EDD Tele-Cert.

Payments

Payments are issued after you certify for benefits and continue to meet all eligibility requirements for every week you claim benefits.

EDD Debit Card℠

After your first payment is authorized, Bank of America will mail you an EDD Debit Card. The card is valid for three years and used for all Disability Insurance (DI), Paid Family Leave (PFL), and Unemployment Insurance (UI) benefits.

If you have an EDD Debit Card from a previous DI, PFL, or UI claim that is still valid, you will not be mailed a new card until the card has expired.

For more information, visit www.bankofamerica.com/eddcard.

Tax Requirements

UI benefits are subject to federal income tax, but exempt from California state income tax. Each time you certify for benefits, you can choose to withhold the 10 percent federal income tax from your weekly benefit payment. Otherwise, you will be required to pay the tax at the end of the year, when you file your tax return.

Each January, the EDD mails a Form 1099G to individuals who received UI benefits during the previous calendar year. Use the form to report important tax information on your federal tax return. You can access Form 1099G information for up to the past five years and/or request duplicate copies through UI Online or by calling 1-866-401-2849.

Child Support Obligations

Your UI benefits may be reduced if you're required to pay child support payments to a court, District Attorney's office, or other child support enforcement agency.

Report Earnings

You are required to report all work, wages, and other income to the EDD during the week they were earned, not when you receive your pay. Failure to properly report your earnings can result in overpayments and penalties.

Types of income to report:

- Piece work
- Idle time pay
- Jury fees
- Commissions
- Witness fees
- Reuse pay
- Holiday pay
- Holding fees
- Residuals
- Awards
- Vacation pay
- In-lieu-of-notice pay
- Bonuses
- Tips
- Self-employment income
- Strike benefits/picket pay
- Standby pay
- Bereavement
- Back-pay
- Paid sick leave
- Workers' Compensation pension, retirement, annuity

Note: You must report board, lodging, meals, or any other payment you receive instead of money when you work. If you are unsure about how to report wages, contact the EDD.

Pension or Retirement Pay

UI benefits may be reduced if you are receiving a pension, retirement pay, annuity, or other similar payment based on your previous work.

Social Security benefits are not deductible and do not need to be reported to the EDD.

Part-Time Work

If you work less than full-time, you may still be eligible for partial UI benefits. The first $25 or 25 percent of your gross total earnings for the week (whichever is greater) will not be counted toward your benefit amount. The amount remaining will be deducted from your weekly benefit amount.

Example 1:

Your weekly benefit amount is $50. You earn $30. You must report the $30; however, the first $25 is not counted, leaving $5 to deduct from your weekly benefit amount. You would receive $45 ($50 minus $5) in UI benefits.

Example 2:

Your weekly benefit amount is $400. You earn $200. You must report $200; however, the first 25 percent ($50) is not counted, leaving $150 to deduct from your weekly benefit amount. You would receive $250 ($400 minus $150) in UI benefits.

How Your Eligibility is Determined

To be eligible, you must be:

- Out of work due to no fault of your own.
- Physically able to work.
- Ready to accept work.
- Actively looking for work.

If you were laid off, you're considered to be out of work through no fault of your own.

If you quit your last job, were fired, or unemployed due to a strike or lockout, the EDD will schedule a phone interview with you to collect information on the reason you're no longer working. Your UI benefits cannot be paid until your phone interview is complete, you certify for benefits, and the EDD determines your eligibility.

You have the right to request more time to gather information, contact witnesses, or obtain the advice of a representative. If the eligibility issue involves an employer, the EDD may contact the employer.

If you are sent a written request for more information and you respond by mail, the EDD interviewer will use the information provided to determine your eligibility.

If you're denied benefits for any reason throughout your claim, including insufficient wages to establish a claim, a written Notice of Determination, DE 1080CZ, will be mailed to you explaining the reason along with your appeal rights.

Important: Your benefits can be delayed or denied if you're not available for the interview or do not submit the required information. The EDD will make a decision of eligibility based on the information available.

Appeals Process

If you're denied UI benefits, you have the legal right to appeal the decision by completing and mailing the Appeal Form, DE 1000M. To be considered timely, it must be mailed within 30 calendar days from the mailing date of the Notice of Determination, DE 1080CZ. If you miss the 30-day deadline, you may still appeal, but you must show good cause for the delay.

Your appeal will be heard by an independent administrative law judge. Hearings are informal, but all testimony is taken under oath and is subject to cross-examination. The office of appeal will notify you of when and where the hearing will be held.

Before the hearing, you have the right to review all records affecting your appeal. Those records are provided by California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board (CUIAB). You can request records from the EDD to prepare for your hearing.

At the hearing, you may be represented by yourself, a union official, an attorney, or anyone else you select. You may bring any relevant documentation you may have to support your case.

After the hearing, you are mailed the administrative law judge's decision. If you're not satisfied, you may submit a second level appeal to the CUIAB.

For information on how the UI code is applied, including current case studies, see the Benefit Determination Guide. A copy is available at www.edd.ca.gov/uibdg.

Important: You're required to continue to certify for benefits while your claim is under appeal. If the original decision is reversed, the EDD can quickly issue all back payments to you. Failure to comply could result in your benefits being denied or delayed.

Cancelling a Claim

You may cancel a claim if you meet all of the following criteria:

- No benefits have been paid.
- You're not disqualified for benefits due to an eligibility issue.
- An overpayment has not been established on the claim.
- You notify the EDD before the 52-week benefit year ends.

Once a claim is canceled, it cannot be re-established with the same beginning date. You must file a new claim, which will have a later beginning date.

Workers Not Covered by Unemployment Insurance

The following groups of workers are not normally covered:

- Elected officials.
- Self-employed, unless participating in elective coverage.
- Students enrolled and regularly attending classes at the school or education institution where employed.
- Members of a Limited Liability Company (LLC) that are treated as a partnership for federal income tax reporting purposes.
- A student's spouse who is working for an educational institution in an employment program provided for the purpose of financially aiding the student.
- Parents employed by their children.
- Husbands and wives employed by each other.
- Certain state-licensed salespersons paid only by commissions.
- Caddies and jockeys.

If you do not know whether you are covered, do not waive your rights. Contact the EDD for more information.

Elective Coverage

Under certain conditions, employers of the individuals whose services are not covered may elect to cover those services. If you're not sure whether you're eligible for these benefits, contact the EDD.

Request a Claim Print Out

You may request a print out of your claim through one of the following methods:

- UI Online at www.edd.ca.gov/UI_Online (account required). Select Claim History and print.
- Call the EDD at 1-800-300-5616.

Special Programs

California Training Benefits (CTB)

If you're attending school or training while receiving UI benefits, you may qualify for the CTB program.

If eligible, you can further your education, upgrade your skills, and/or learn a new trade while attending an EDD-approved training or school program to be more competitive in today's labor market.

While in school or training, you'll be exempt from the requirements to be available for work, actively seek work, and accept work. You may also be eligible for additional weeks of benefits. Learn more at www.edd.ca.gov/unemployment/California_Training_Benefits.htm.

Note: The EDD does not cover any educational or training-related expenses such as tuition, fees, books, supplies, or transportation. However, there are state, federal, or employer programs that may fund your school or training.

Training Extension (TE)

A TE provides additional benefits to individuals who have been approved for California Training Benefits (CTB), while completing school or training. Only one TE is allowed for each CTB-approved training period.

If interested, you must contact the EDD to inquire about a TE before receiving the 16th week of benefits. For claims that have less than 16 weeks of benefits, you must contact the EDD before the claim reaches a zero balance.

Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA)

The WIOA is a federally funded program that provides a range of employment services, education, training, and support services to help job seekers and workers. In California, WIOA services are provided through America's Job Center of California℠ (AJCC) locations. AJCC locations throughout the state provide in person assistance for no cost. To find an office near you, visit www.edd.ca.gov/Office_Locator or call 1-877-872-5627.

Disaster Unemployment Assistance (DUA)

The federal DUA program provides financial assistance to individuals whose employment or self-employment has been lost or interrupted as a direct result of a major disaster and who are not eligible for regular UI benefits. These benefits are available only when the President of the United States declares a major disaster.

If DUA benefits are available, information will be posted on the EDD website at www.edd.ca.gov.

Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA)/Re-employment Trade Adjustment Assistance (RTAA)

The TAA program is a federally funded program that provides training and training-related benefits and services to workers who are certified by the U.S. Department of Labor as having lost their jobs, or had their hours and wages reduced, as a result of increased imports from, or a shift in production to, a foreign country.

The RTAA program provides wage subsidies to individuals age 50 or older who return to work paying less than their former trade impacted employment.

Extended Benefits

Extended benefits are available to workers who have exhausted regular unemployment insurance benefits when the unemployment rate equals or exceeds a certain percentage established by state and/or federal law or when the federal government approves special extended benefit legislation.

Railroad Unemployment Benefits

Railroad workers may claim benefits under the U.S. Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act. This program is administered by the U.S. Railroad Retirement Board (RRB).

To file a claim, call the toll-free number at 1-877-772-5772 between 9 a.m. and 3:30 p.m., Monday through Friday to speak to an RRB representative or file online at www.rrb.gov.

Unemployment Insurance Fraud Prevention and Detection

The Employment Development Department (EDD) takes the security of personal and confidential information very seriously. Therefore, all data submitted us is encrypted. Additional safeguards are built in to further protect your personal information from imposter fraud and identity theft.

Imposter fraud occurs when someone intentionally files an UI claim using another person's employment or personal information. The EDD actively investigates cases of imposter fraud and is committed to protecting the identities of legitimate claimants.

If we suspect that there may be identity or imposter issues, you'll receive a written request to validate the information provided to us. We'll also contact your former employer(s) and governmental entities to verify the documents and any information you supply.

For more information, download the Protect Your Identity and Stop Unemployment Insurance Imposter Fraud, DE 2360EE, brochure from the EDD website at www.edd.ca.gov/pdf_pub_ctr/de2360ee.pdf.

To report UI fraud, visit https://askedd.edd.ca.gov and select Report Fraud to submit a Fraud Reporting Form online or call the EDD toll-free fraud hotline at 1-800-229-6297.

Penalties

Making a false statement or withholding information to receive benefits can be a felony. Penalties may include a loss of benefits, a false statement disqualification, and/or criminal prosecution.

A false statement disqualification denies benefits from 2 to 23 weeks. The disqualification stays on your record for three years or until served, whichever comes first. To serve false statement weeks, you must continue to certify for UI benefits, and meet all other eligibility requirements. You will not be paid during this time.

Benefit Audits

The EDD conducts audits by cross-referencing employer information with unemployment (UI) claim information. This allows us to determine if a claimant received benefits after returning to work. Overpayments and penalties collected from these audits ensure the solvency of the UI Trust Fund and help reduce UI taxes.

Social Security Number Verification

The EDD may require you to verify your Social Security number (SSN) as issued to you by the Social Security Administration (SSA).

Your eligibility for benefits may be affected if:

- The SSN provided is under a different name or belongs to another individual.
- The SSN is not valid.
- The SSN was never issued by the SSA.
- The wages in the base period belong to another individual.
- The date of birth at the SSA is different than the date of birth you gave when you filed your claim.

If the EDD requires you to verify your SSN, you may be asked to submit a complete copy of your Social Security Statement. To obtain a copy of your complete Social Security Statement access the SSA website at www.ssa.gov.

A copy of your Social Security card will not satisfy this requirement.

State Disability Insurance (SDI)

SDI is comprised of Disability Insurance and Paid Family Leave. Most workers covered by California UI are also covered by SDI. The program is funded entirely by workers through a payroll tax withheld from their earnings.

Exceptions:

- Employees of local public entities (except workers in district hospitals) are not covered by SDI unless the employer elects such coverage.
- Employees of the state or state-funded institutions of higher education may, through their collective bargaining units, elect to be covered by SDI.
- Self-employed individuals may elect to be covered by SDI.

Disability Insurance (DI)

DI provides short-time, partial wage replacement benefits to workers who are unable to work due to a non-work-related illness or injury, pregnancy, or childbirth.

Your DI claim must be submitted within 49 days from the first day your disability begins. If you miss this deadline, you may lose benefits for the number of days that the claim is late unless you demonstrate good cause for the delay. For faster processing, file your claim using SDI Online.

The first seven days of a DI claim is a non-payable waiting period. Benefits begin with the eighth day of disability. DI is payable for a maximum of 52 weeks.

Exception: If a claim is filed for the same or related cause or condition within 60 days of the initial claim, there will be no new waiting period.

To file a claim or learn more, visit www.edd.ca.gov/disability. EDD staff are available from Monday through Friday between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. (Pacific Time), except on state holidays.

Paid Family Leave (PFL)

PFL provides partial wage replacement benefits to individuals who need to take time off work to care for a seriously ill child, parent, parent-in-law, grandparent, grandchild, sibling, spouse, or registered domestic partner. Benefits are also available to parents who need time to bond with a new child entering their family either by birth, adoption, or foster care placement. Unlike DI, there is no waiting period.

To file, or learn more visit www.edd.ca.gov/Disability/Paid_Family_Leave.htm.

EDD staff are available from Monday through Friday between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. (Pacific Time), except on state holidays.

Workforce Services

The EDD partners with the America's Job Center of California℠ (AJCC) network and provides no-cost employment services for job seekers and employers throughout California.

Workshops are offered on topics including job search, training, résumé writing, and interview techniques. Employers can use our many services to help recruit qualified candidates for open positions, train current employees, and organize job fairs and workshops. To find your nearest AJCC, visit www.edd.ca.gov/Office_Locator.

CalJOBS℠

Job seekers can use CalJOBS to:

- Search for jobs 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The CalJOBS mobile app is available for download on iTunes and Google Play.
- Create a résumé or upload multiple résumés.
- Explore vocational training, workshops, and other events within their local area.

Note: Registering for a CalJOBS account and posting a résumé is an eligibility requirement for many UI claimants. To register, visit www.caljobs.ca.gov.

Experience Unlimited Program

Professionals from a wide variety of fields can take advantage of EDD-sponsored job clubs. Experience Unlimited provides a place where job seekers can meet with other career professionals to share job leads, provide support, and update their job search skills at no cost. Resources include workshops, résumé evaluations, mock interviews, networking opportunities, and more.

Migrant and Seasonal Farmworkers Program

Assistance is available to farmworkers and food processing workers who may be unfamiliar with the services available through the AJCC network or who have language barriers that might lessen the effectiveness of their job search.

Veterans Services Program

This program assists eligible veterans achieve their employment goals. Services may include an individual employment plan, objective assessment, career counseling, labor market information, job referrals, job search workshops, and job development with potential employers.

Youth Employment Opportunity Program

This special service helps youth, ages 15 through 25, achieve their educational and vocational goals. Services include peer advising, referrals to supportive services, workshops, job referrals and placement assistance, and referrals to training and community outreach efforts.

For more information on the programs and services listed above, visit www.edd.ca.gov/Jobs_and_Training.
