STUDENT UNION

Named after Conrad Prebys who gifted $20 million to San Diego State University for student scholarships, the Conrad Prebys Aztec Student Union serves as the campus living room for student life. Designed as a LEED Platinum building with several energy conservation features. Amenities and services include dining, retail, lounges, meeting rooms, a multi-purpose Montezuma Hall, 300-seat Theatre, outdoor courtyards, bowling and a fitness center. Funding for the $104 million student union comes entirely from SDSU student-approved fees.
